Letter Models (Q5)

10 model letters in board style

LETTER MODELS — English 11 (Q5)

10 model letters in board style. Each letter follows the standard format: address, date, salutation, body, subscription.

Note: Board tip: Keep the letter within 120–150 words. Use simple, correct English. Address and date are compulsory.

Letter 1: To a friend describing a visit to a historical place

Dear Ali,

I hope you are well. Last month, I visited the Badshahi Mosque in Lahore with my family. The mosque is a masterpiece of Mughal architecture. Its red sandstone walls and white marble domes looked magnificent in the evening sun.

We also visited the Lahore Fort and the Shalimar Gardens. The gardens were full of flowers and fountains. I learned a lot about our history during the trip.

I wish you were there with me. Do write back and tell me about your holidays.

Your loving friend,
Ahmed

Letter 2: To a friend inviting him to a birthday party

Dear Bilal,

I am glad to inform you that my birthday is on 15th December. I am arranging a small party at my home in the evening. I would be delighted if you could join us.

There will be games, music, and delicious food. Your presence will make the occasion special for me.

Please confirm your attendance so that I can make arrangements accordingly. I look forward to seeing you.

Your friend,
Usman

Letter 3: To a friend describing your school

Dear Hassan,

I am writing to tell you about my new school. It is a large building with spacious classrooms and a big playground. The teachers are kind and helpful. We have a science laboratory, a computer lab, and a library.

Our principal is a strict but fair person. The school also organises sports and debates regularly. I have made many new friends here.

I hope you will visit my school someday. Write to me soon.

Your friend,
Zain

Letter 4: To a friend about your favourite book

Dear Hamza,

You asked me about my favourite book. It is 'The Alchemist' by Paulo Coelho. The story is about a shepherd boy who follows his dreams and finds his treasure.

The book teaches us to follow our hearts and never give up. I have read it three times and each time I learn something new.

I recommend you to read this book. It will change your thinking about life.

Your friend,
Omar

Letter 5: To a friend describing your hometown

Dear Farhan,

I am writing to describe my hometown, Multan. It is an ancient city known for its mangoes, cotton, and blue pottery. The city has many historical monuments, including the tombs of saints.

The people of Multan are warm and hospitable. The city is famous for its delicious food, especially the mango and the kachori.

I invite you to visit my hometown. You will love it here.

Your friend,
Sajid

Letter 6: To a friend about a picnic

Dear Imran,

Our class went on a picnic to the Ayub National Park last Sunday. We left school early in the morning by bus. The park was full of trees, flowers, and a beautiful lake.

We played cricket and football. Our teachers also joined us in the games. We had lunch under the trees and enjoyed the day thoroughly.

It was a memorable day. I wish you had been there.

Your friend,
Danish

Letter 7: To a friend congratulating him on success

Dear Asad,

I was delighted to hear that you have passed your examination with first division. Your hard work and dedication have paid off. I am very proud of you.

studysapiens.com

Your success is an inspiration for all of us. I hope you will continue to shine in the future as well.

Congratulations once again. Let us celebrate together soon.

Your friend,
Waqas

Letter 8: To a friend about your hobby

Dear Talha,

You asked me about my hobby. I love gardening. I have a small garden in my house where I grow flowers and vegetables. Gardening keeps me fresh and teaches me patience.

Every morning, I water the plants and remove the weeds. It is a relaxing activity that connects me with nature.

I suggest you also take up a hobby. It makes life more interesting.

Your friend,
Nabeel

Letter 9: To a friend describing a cricket match

Dear Saad,

Last Sunday, I watched a cricket match between our school and another school. Our team batted first and scored 180 runs. The opposing team played well but our bowlers took wickets regularly.

In the end, our team won by 20 runs. The crowd cheered loudly. It was an exciting match.

I hope you will join me for the next match.

Your friend,
Junaid

Letter 10: To a friend about your future plans

Dear Rizwan,

I am writing to share my future plans with you. I want to become a doctor. I have always been interested in science and helping people. I believe a doctor can serve humanity in the best way.

I am working hard to achieve my goal. I hope you will support me in my endeavours.

What are your plans for the future? Write to me soon.

Your friend,
Adeel

studysapiens.com